Sex, Lies and Valentines by Tawny Weber

Ms. Weber usually has a cheeky sense of humor but in Sex, Lies and Valentines, it's toned down. It's probably in deference to the tenor of the book and that would make sense to me. Trying to clear your dad of wrong doing is serious stuff and the author translates that sense of drama, suspense and trepidation clearly to a reader. The stakes are the highest they've been, especially when a
