The Da Vinci Cook (Angie Amalfi, #14) by Joanne Pence

That aside, Da Vinci Cook was a bit of a disap. Paavo and Angie are incredibly sweet and gooey, which is a nice change from heroines who seem to get a new boyfriend in every book. The "mystery" in the subtitle is rather misleading, I think; although there's a bit of a detective/crime/mystery element, they cover her journeys back and forth rather than any real attempt to "catch the killer."
