Two Truths and a Lie is a poignant exploration into the art of communication, an eloquent insight into the fact that, like dance, theatre, or aikido, communication is a discipline, which, without proper attention and practice, will become rusty and ineffective. That we can learn this lesson from the subtle communication of animals lends a breath of originality to Ms. Kittle's work, which Two Truths and a Lie book by Katrina Kittle - Thriftbooks

Kittle's previous work, Traveling Light, was beautiful because, while the bare plot is sad, the story feels hopeful. In Two Truths and a Lie, her skill with mood shows through again, but is now complemented by innumerable convolutions of plot.
