Witch by Barbara Michaels - Goodreads
Witch was one of the earlier efforts of the legendary Barbara Michaels. It shows, in the formulaic nature of the book. That's not necessarily a bad thing, as the formula is a successful one. Just be prepared to figure things out early on.

Witch: Barbara Michaels: 9780060828868: Books - Amazon.ca

I have read several of Barbara Michaels' books and have to say that this may actually be the best one I have read! I borrowed it from the library and was so entranced by the story that I read it in one day. Now I plan to purchase a copy from Amazon for a place on my bookshelf - which isn't that easy to qualify for! Only the very best books gain a place there. And this book is a great one!

Witch by Barbara Michaels (9780060828868)

This is the first Barbara Michaels/Elizabeth Peters book I have read and while it was not what I expected, it won't be my last. It's not quite the ghost story that the jacket synopsis would lead you to believe, but it does contain some more realistic elements that can be just as creepy.

Witch by Barbara Michaels, Paperback | Barnes & Noble

I love this old one from Barbara Michaels (Mertz), aka Elizabeth Peters. A woman goes to live in a small town, in a little cottage rumored to have belonged to a long-dead witch. The townspeople are odd ducks, members of a cultish, fanatical religion, and they soon become convinced that Ellie is a witch as well. Nearby is rich neighbor Norman who Ellie might be interested in, and his troubled
